

Pevensy & Westham CE Primary School Requires a Forest School Leader

We are seeking an enthusiastic and dedicated individual to take on the role of Forest School Lead at Pevensy & Westham CE Primary School.

The role will include delivering a full Forest School programme for Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) and KS1, as well as supporting across the school with outdoor learning days linked to the curriculum. We believe that Forest School plays a vital role in enabling our pupils to become more successful learners in the classroom and helps them face the challenges of everyday life. By doing so, we strive to help our children flourish, reach their potential, and enjoy a fuller life.

The ideal candidate will possess the following skills and experience:

- Forest School Leader level 3 certificate (essential)
- Experience working with primary age children
- Practical experience leading Forest School or Outdoor Education
- This is a physically demanding role, therefore you must be able to work outdoors and have the ability to use relevant power tools and equipment.

What the school offers its staff

At Pevensy & Westham Primary School, we value our staff and invest in their wellbeing and professional growth. We offer:

- Wellbeing support to ensure a healthy work-life balance
- Professional training and development opportunities to enhance your skills
- Regular on-going support from leadership and colleagues
- A team of supportive colleagues who share a common vision for high-quality education
- Beautiful surroundings and location that inspire both staff and children alike

If you are passionate about outdoor learning and want to be part of a school that promotes a holistic approach to education, we welcome your application!

Salary: Single Status Pay Scale: Grade 6 pt. 14-16 Salary: £25,993-£26,835 (pro rata)

Hours: 14 hours per week (the school can be flexible with hours and days)

Part-time term-time only, Contract: Permanent

To express your interest in this role please complete and return the support staff application form to admin@pevenseyschool.org.uk making sure you clearly outline why we should hire you.

Closing date: Noon 2nd June 2025
